PREFACE

1. The title of this plan is the Department of the Army Civil Disturbance Plan.
2. The nickname applicable to this plan is GARDEN PLOT. For operational consistency, Military Services, Department of Defense (DOD) components, and subordinate commands will use this nickname in civil disturbance plans.
3. The Constitution of the United States and numerous statutes provide the President with authority to intervene with Federal armed forces within the 50 states, District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, US possessions and territories, or any political subdivision thereof in case of civil violence or other disturbances to:
 - a. Aid state authorities at the request of the state.
 - b. Enforce the laws of the United States in any state or territory.
 - c. Protect the civil rights of citizens within a state.
4. Authority exists to assist civil authorities with military resources short of Federal military intervention when certain necessary conditions discussed in the body of this plan are met.
5. The Secretary of the Army has been designated the Executive Agent for the Department of Defense in all matters pertaining to the planning for, deployment and employment of military resources in the event of civil disturbances. In addition, a Directorate for Civil Disturbance Planning and Operations (DCDPO), under the Chief of Staff, US Army (CofSA) has been established by the DOD Executive Agent. This Directorate plans for, coordinates and directs the employment of all designated Federal military resources for the DOD Executive Agent in civil disturbance operations and serves as the point of contact for DOD in all such matters. DOD components having cognizance over military resources are responsible for supporting the DOD Executive Agent through the DCDEPO in matters pertaining to civil disturbances.

6. The provisions of this plan are applicable in the 50 states, District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, US possessions, territories, or any political subdivisions thereof. The Panama Canal Zone is exempted from the provisions of this plan. Measures taken by military forces to cope with civil disturbances occurring in the Panama Canal Zone will be under the provisions of Section 35, Title 2, Canal Zone Code, 1962 (CZC35). 2

7. This plan provides guidance for development of plans to support civil disturbance operations by the Military Services, unified commands, and other DOD components.

8. This plan bears the overall classification CONFIDENTIAL because of the sensitivity of content and to protect information regarding plans for employment of United States military resources. Dissemination of information contained herein will be on a need-to-know basis. Dissemination of portions of this plan outside of DOD will be in accordance with paragraph 32, AR 380-5 and paragraph 5, AR 345-15, and applicable regulations of other Services.

9. This document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, United States Code, Section 793. The transmission or communication of information contained herein, in any manner, to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

10. The proponent of this plan is the Director for Civil Disturbance Planning and Operations. Recommended changes to this plan will be submitted to the Director for Civil Disturbance Planning and Operations, ATTN: CDPO-PL-IS, Department of the Army, Washington, D. C. 20310.

11. Changes to this plan will normally be furnished in the form of complete page replacements.

12. Department of the Army Civil Disturbance Plan, 1 Feb 68, will be superseded by this plan on order. 1. (FOUO) SITUATION

a. General.

- (1) Civil disturbances which are beyond the control of municipal or state authorities may occur at any time. Dissatisfaction with the environmental conditions contributing to racial unrest and civil disturbances and dissatisfaction with national policy as manifested in the anti-draft and anti-Vietnam demonstrations are recognized factors within the political and social structure. As such, they might provide a preconditioned base for a steadily deteriorating situation leading to demonstrations and violent attacks upon the social order. The consistency and intensity of these pre-conditions could lead in time to a situation of insurgency should external subversive forces develop successful control of the situation. Federal military intervention may be required to preserve life and property and maintain normal processes of governments.
- (2) Analysis of civil disturbances. DA Counterintelligence Research Project (counterintelligence estimate): Civil Disturbances, CONUS (published quarterly).
- (3) Urban areas. In assessing the probabilities of civil disturbances occurring in urban areas, the following should be considered:

B-1

ANNEX B (INTELLIGENCE) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

- b. Dissident Elements. Reference c.

2. (C) ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF INFORMATION (EEI) AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE REQUIREMENTS (OIR)

- b. Patterns, techniques, and capabilities of subversive elements in cover and deception efforts in civil disturbances.

d. Thefts from any source of significant quantities of weapons and ammunition.

e. Unusual or suspect sales of weapons and ammunition.

f. Strikes, civil disturbances and labor disturbances which affect military installations or other strikes or labor and civil disturbances of sufficient magnitude to indicate a probable employment of Federal troops to preserve or restore order.

g. Information concerning anticipated opposition to military intervention, to include courses of action, methods and capabilities, weapons, and support.

h. Reaction to changes of Federal, state or municipal laws, court decisions, referendums, amendments, executive orders, or other directives which affect minority groups.

ANNEX C (CONCEPT OF OPERATIONS) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL
DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

1. (C) GENERAL

a. Singular or multiple civil disturbances with which municipal, state, and/or territorial forces are incapable of coping may develop within the 50 states, District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, US territories and/or possessions. In either event, it is anticipated that Federal assistance will be directed by the President. When Federal intervention is directed, required military resources of unified and specified commands will be transferred by the JCS to their respective Military Departments. Concurrently with, or following the direction to use active Federal resources in civil disturbance operations, designated National Guard units may be called into active Federal service and Reserve units may be ordered to active duty. In CONUS, designated active military ground forces employed will be under the operational control of the CofSA. When REFORGER units are employed, USCINCEUR will be notified. In civil disturbances outside of CONUS, the DOD Executive Agent will exercise direction of all forces employed in civil disturbance operations through the commanders designated by the commanders of unified commands keeping the JCS informed of all actions pertaining thereto. The probable order of employment of forces available in civil disturbances will be:

- (1) Local and state police.
- (2) State National Guard.
- (3) Federal military forces to include called Army and Air National Guard.
- (4) Reserve units of the Services ordered to active duty.

b. The situation existing at the time of the disturbances may require that the above-listed order of employment of forces be altered.

c. When Federal troops are employed in an objective area of CONUS, an Active Army general officer will be designated the task force commander and will be delegated operational control of all attached military ground forces committed in that operation. In objective areas outside of the CONUS, the control of military forces will be as directed by unified commanders involved.

d. This plan applies to and provides the basis for the preparation, deployment, employment and redeployment of designated forces of Military Services, including called National Guard and Reserves ordered to active duty, for employment in civil disturbance operations in the 50 states, District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, US possessions, and territories as the President may direct.

ANNEX C (CONCEPT OF OPERATIONS) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL
DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

e. When appropriate and practical, military ground forces employed in civil disturbance operations will employ tailored organizations and minimum essential equipment (annex A, Appendix 1 - Model Units).

f. Called National Guard units will normally be employed in state(s) of origin and Reserve units of all Services ordered to active duty will normally be employed in the vicinity of the unit's home location, although movement and employment of these units as required is authorized.

g. Ground elements of Federal military forces, including selected Reserve units of all Services ordered to active duty and called Army and Air National Guard units, will be deployed, employed and redeployed as directed by the CofSA. When directed, operational control of all ground forces provided by the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps to include those forces released by the JCS for civil disturbance operations in CONUS will be passed to CGUSCONARC for movement to and from objective areas. Ground forces provided by the Air Force will be under the direction of the CofSA for movement to and from the objective areas. Upon completion of redeployment, forces will be transferred to the Military Departments as directed by CofSA.

2. (C) OPERATIONS

a. The President directs Federal intervention in civil disturbances. The Secretary of the Army as DOD Executive Agent directs, through the CofSA in CONUS and through designated commanders of the unified commands outside of CONUS, civil disturbance planning and operations. Upon initiation of civil disturbance operations in CONUS, CofSA: directs CGUSCONARC to pre-position and/or move military ground forces to objective areas; alerts the Department of the Air Force to provide needed air transport for the movement(s); tasks other military Services and DOD components for military resources as planned and required; and informs the JCS and unified command commanders of actual or potential loss of military resources.

b. Civil Disturbance operations will be conducted in three phases: Deployment (Phase I), Employment (Phase II), and Redeployment (Phase III).

(1) Phase I - Deployment.

DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

- (a) The Chief of Staff, US Army, issues a warning order as far in advance as is practicable (appendix 1, this annex). The designated task force commander and appropriate members of his staff normally conduct a reconnaissance of the objective area as soon as possible after being alerted to assess the situation. Resulting recommendations will be made directly to CofSA within two hours of arrival in the objective area. Reconnaissance by task force personnel will be made in civilian clothing using commercial transportation and communications equipment. The state adjutant general will be notified in advance by Chief, National Guard Bureau, of the arrival of the task force commander (appendix 2, this annex) and the foregoing coordinated with the Personal Liaison Officer for the CofSA (PLOCSA) if one is appointed and available (appendix 3, this annex).
- (b) The President issues a proclamation directing that all persons engaged in unlawful obstructions to justice cease and desist, disperse, and retire peaceably (appendix 4, this annex). The President then issues an Executive Order (appendix 5, this annex). Within existing authority, the Secretary of the Army, as DOD Executive Agent, directs civil disturbance operations through CofSA in CONUS and through designated commanders of the unified commands outside of CONUS.
- (c) The CofSA as designated commander of all military ground forces committed, issues a Letter of Instruction (LOI) (appendix 6, this annex) designating the task force commander within CONUS and directs the employment of Federal military resources.
- (d) The Department of the Army transmits to the appropriate state governor and others concerned, messages announcing the calling of Army and designated Air National Guard units and ordering Army Reserve units to active duty (appendix 7 and 8, this annex). The Departments of the Navy and the Air Force will use existing procedures for ordering required Reserve units to active duty.

- (e) The Department of Navy provides required ground forces; makes available airlift resources to the Air Force as requested; mobilizes Reserve units as required; passes operational control of ground forces to CGUSCONARC for movement to and from objective area and operational control to CofSA or the task force commander in the objective area.
 - (f) The Department of the Air Force provides required airlift for air movement of designated forces to objective area(s); provides required ground forces; supports deployed forces by logistic air movements, aerial reconnaissance, and special operations as required; designates specific units of Air National Guard and orders to active duty designated Reserve units as required.
 - (g) CGUSCONARC: Nominates units to comprise task forces required by CofSA; insures readiness of Army forces for movement; plans for and submits airlift and/or surface transportation requirements to DCDPO for designated ground forces; on order, deploys forces to the objective area(s) and on order passes operational control of military ground forces to the CofSA or the task force commander in the objective area.
 - (h) CGUSASTRATCOM: Designates detachment(s) to support task force commander(s) as required, insures readiness of unit for movement, passes operational control to CGUSCONARC for movement to and from objective area(s) and operational control to CofSA or as he may delegate for operations.
- (2) Phase II - Employment. On order of the CofSA, the task force commander assumes operational control of attached military ground forces in the objective area, executes the task force mission, and recommends the effective times and dates for return of control to civil authorities. Logistic support for all ground forces in objective area(s) in CONUS is provided by CGUSCONARC using available resources of all Services.
- (3) Phase III - Redeployment. Following appropriate consultation with the Executive Agent, the CofSA will announce the time and date of termination of Federal intervention and direct the task force commander to pass operational control of designated ground forces in CONUS to CGUSCONARC for redeployment to home stations. Upon completion of redeployment, forces will be transferred to Military Departments as directed by the CofSA.

ANNEX C (CONCEPT OF OPERATIONS) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

3. (U) COORDINATION WITH STATE AND MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS

CGUSCONARC will insure that planning for civil disturbance operations in the 25 High Priority objective areas will include coordination between the task force headquarters (preferably by the task force commander) and state and municipal officials for the purpose of reviewing, coordinating, improving, and supplementing (when Federal intervention occurs) state and local civil disturbance plans. Efforts will be made to establish working relationships and arrangements as deemed suitable for the area in anticipation of Federal intervention. Potential problem areas which cannot be resolved at task force level will be submitted for resolution at the appropriate echelon. The senior civilian representative, DOJ representative, PLOCSA, and DALT will normally assist the task force commander in maintaining harmonious and effective working relationships during the Employment Phase.

4. (U) SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

Special instructions are issued to commanders to assist them in civil disturbance operations as considered appropriate (appendix 9, this annex).

5. (U) AREAS OUTSIDE OF CONUS

Civil disturbance operations conducted outside of the CONUS will generally follow procedures stated in this plan as appropriate to the area of operations.

Moreover, commanders and their personnel should do whatever is possible to appear as a force whose purpose is to restore order with a minimum loss of life and property rather than an irruptive, hostile force. Further, due respect will be shown for the great number of citizens whose involvement is purely accidental. For example, while riot control personnel should be visible, force concentrations which might tend more to excite than to calm should be avoided where possible. Your force options for determining how your troops may be armed to accomplish your mission are enumerated in appendix 9 to annex C of Department of the Army Civil Disturbance Plan. b. APPENDIX 9 (SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS) TO ANNEX C (CONCEPT OF OPERATIONS)
TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

1. (C) APPLICATION OF FORCE

a. Minimum force, consistent with mission accomplishment, will be used by military personnel. Commanders and their personnel should do whatever is possible to avoid appearing as an invading, alien force. While riot control personnel should be visible, force concentrations which might tend more to excite than to calm should be avoided where possible. Personnel must be civil; epithets and degrading language will not be used.

b. In applying the "application of force" principle, many and varied options as to how the troops may be armed are open to the commanders. The following options have been provided as guidance for determining how troops may be armed while applying one of the force measures:

RIFLE	BAYONET SCABBARD	BAYONET	AMMUNITION MAGAZINE/ CLIP	CHAMBER
At Sling	On Belt	In Scabbard	In Pouch On Belt	Empty
At Port	On Belt	In Scabbard	In Pouch On Belt	Empty
At Port	On Bayonet	Fixed	In Pouch On Belt	Empty
At Port	On Belt	Fixed	In Pouch On Belt	Empty
At Port	On Belt	Fixed	In the Weapon	Empty
At Port	On Belt	Fixed	In the Weapon	Round Chambered

These options are not sequential nor must any one follow the other. Use of a riot control agent in conjunction with any of the above options or by itself is an alternative also open to the commander on the scene.

c. Authority to order the use of the riot control agents rests with the task force commander. The task force commander may delegate this authority to commissioned officers. Riot control agents should be used to accomplish the mission before live ammunition is used.

d. Military personnel will not load or fire their weapons except when authorized by an officer in person; when authorized in advance by an officer under certain specific conditions; or when required to save their lives.

e. The use of force to prevent sniping, arson, and looting and to detain persons caught in these acts may become necessary. The amount of force which may be used is that which is reasonably necessary under the circumstances. Warning shots will not be fired; however, when shooting is necessary, shots will be aimed to wound rather than to kill.

- (1) The normal reflex action of the well-trained combat soldier to sniper fire is to respond with an overwhelming mass of fire power. In a civil disturbance situation this tactic endangers innocent people more than snipers. The preferred tactic is to enter the building from which sniper fire originates. Darkening the street in order to gain protection from sniper fire is counterproductive. The following general approach should be emphasized in dealing with snipers.
 - (a) Surround the building where sniper is concealed and gain access, using armored personnel carriers if necessary and available.
 - (b) Employ CS initially rather than small arms fire. If CS is not successfully employed, then use well-aimed fire by expert marksmen.
 - (c) Illuminate the area during darkness.
- (2) The prevention of arson requires immediate and decisive action. Troops committed to civil disturbance control operations must continuously be on the alert for acts of arson or suspected arsonists. Immediate measures must be taken to eliminate or reduce this threat in the affected area by using the minimum force necessary to (1) prevent the arson and (2) apprehend the arsonist. Weapons fire may be required to prevent acts of arson which would cause loss of human life or destruction of facilities vital to public safety and the conduct of government. In such instances the principle of using only that force necessary must be observed and commanders should make every effort to control personally weapons fire directed at arsonists.

- (3) Looters present a particular problem since women and children may be involved and the articles looted may be of little value. The looter is not necessarily sympathetic toward the views of those who otherwise participate in the disturbance. There is no satisfactory predetermination as to when firearms should be employed to stop looting beyond continued emphasis on the absolute necessity of using minimum force and avoiding the use of firearms except as a last resort and under the rules established here and in paragraphs d and e above.

2. (C) APPREHENSION

All arrests should be made, if possible, by the civil police. Where possible, police and military forces will be jointly employed in riot control operations so that police will be readily available to arrest people detained by military personnel.

3. (U) SPECIAL ORDERS

a. During required riot training all designated components of the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps will be given familiarization training in the following "Special Orders:"

- (1) I will always present a neat military appearance. I will conduct myself in a military manner at all times and I will do all I can to bring credit upon myself, my unit, and the Military Service.
- (2) I will be courteous in all dealings with civilians to the maximum extent possible under existing circumstances.
- (3) I will not load or fire my weapon except when authorized by an officer in person, when authorized in advance by an officer under certain specific conditions, or when required to save my life.
- (4) I will not intentionally mistreat civilians, including those I am controlling, or those in my custody nor will I withhold medical attention from anyone who requires it.
- (5) I will not discuss or pass on rumors about this operation.

- (6) I will to the maximum extent possible let civilian police arrest civilians, but when assistance is necessary or in the absence of the civilian police, I have the responsibility and authority to detain or take into custody rioters, looters, or others committing offenses. I will take such persons to the police or designated military authorities as soon as possible. It is my duty to deliver evidence and to complete evidence tags and detainee forms in accordance with my instructions.
- (7) I will allow properly identified reporters and radio and television personnel freedom of movement, unless they interfere with the mission of my unit.
- (8) I will avoid damage to property as far as possible.

b. The intent of these special orders is to strike a balance in the use of force so as to avoid indiscriminate firing in civil disturbance situations and that of protecting the individual's inherent right of self defense.

c. All personnel will possess a copy of the special orders while engaged in civil disturbance operations. Copies will be stockpiled at appropriate locations to facilitate expeditious distribution.

APPENDIX 3 (SERVICE SUPPORT GUIDANCE) TO ANNEX D (LOGISTICS) TO THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

1. LAUNDRY

As an exception to paragraph 28b, AR 210-130 where task forces are deployed from their home stations to engage in the control of civil disturbances, authority is granted to provide laundry services at Government expense. This authority is limited to military personnel of the Active Army, the National Guard when called and the Army Reserve when mobilized. Military personnel of the other Services who meet the above cited criteria regarding engagement in the control of civil disturbances are also eligible. Service will be provided at Government facilities (Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps) when available through this source or in their absence by commercial contractual arrangements. OMA cost code 9040.5300 will be cited to cover and absorb the cost for Army personnel when service is by commercial contract or Government laundries other than Army operated facilities. Service provided by Army operated facilities to Army personnel will be chargeable against OMA funds and specifically to the laundry program cost code 9040.5. When service is provided to military personnel other than Army, the Service from which the personnel is detailed will support the costs incurred.

2. BATH

- a. Provided by nearest military installation if practicable.
- b. Provided by mobile bath or decontamination units if available.
- c. If military facilities are not available, universities, high schools, armories, and recreational facilities will be utilized after necessary coordination.

3. MAINTENANCE

- a. Task force elements will perform maximum organizational maintenance on their organic equipment.
- b. USCONARC will provide direct and general support maintenance for task force elements in the objective area as required, to include prompt initiation of contract or inter/intra service agreements with other Governmental agencies if required.

c. USCONARC will stress operator maintenance training in task force units to attain a high state of materiel readiness.

d. Maximum use will be made of maintenance support capability of Class I installations for support of task force units.

e. Mobile maintenance contact teams, as required, are encouraged to establish liaison with task force headquarters to determine maintenance support requirements and to coordinate and expedite maintenance efforts in support of the task force.

f. Intermediate (direct/general) and depot level maintenance will continue to be a responsibility of the parent Service.

4. ENGINEER

a. Real Estate

- (1) USCONARC will provide field personnel to permit rapid and efficient execution of operations under this plan. Use agreements for known task force facility requirements may be executed by the appropriate Division/District Engineer on request by the Army commander. If considered necessary by the Army commander and with the concurrence of the appropriate civil authorities, arrangements providing for use of facilities may be concluded as a planning action in preparation for potential operations under this plan. Requirements that real estate actions be handled insofar as practicable on a need-to-know basis, without publicity, are not considered to prohibit establishment of necessary real estate arrangements, either before or after initiation of operations under this plan. Although US Army Division/District Engineers are responsible for the acquisition of real estate requirements, responsibility for the release of any information concerning a plan or change in an existing plan is with the Army commander or his designee. Therefore, initial contacts with public officials or private property owners for the use of real property will be made by the Army commander or his designee. The Division/District Engineer, or his real estate representative may accompany the Army commander's representative to provide technical support.

93

APPENDIX 3 (SERVICE SUPPORT GUIDANCE) TO ANNEX D (LOGISTICS) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

- (2) The staff of each task force will include an officer to coordinate real estate matters through and in conjunction with the responsible CONUS Army engineer.
- (3) In developing implementing plans, task force commanders will make maximum use of Federally controlled property.
 - (a) Property under DOD control. Direct coordination is authorized with all elements of DA, DN, and DAF for permission to use Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps controlled property.
 - (b) Property controlled by other Federal agencies and non-Federally controlled property.
 1. Real estate operations will be coordinated by the United States Army Engineer Division/District which performs military construction and real estate operations in the applicable area.
 2. The Division/District engineers will advise the Army task force commander on required procedures prior to reconnaissance and occupancy of property not under DOD control.
 3. Direct coordination with the US Army Division/District engineer should be maintained for real estate matters and to keep the Division and District engineers informed on civil disturbance task force requirements.
- (4) Requests by the National Guard when employed under State control for the use of active Army and USAR facilities can be approved or disapproved at CONUSA/MDW level except when such operations would be in violation of Federal statutes. Licensing of USAR facilities for periods of occupancy will include a provision for dual occupancy (USAR and NG).

b. Construction. Where facilities are not available from local sources and construction must be accomplished, austere constructions standards will be used to meet minimum essential requirements.

b. DCDPO will task the Department of the Air Force for airlift and MTMTS for surface movement to provide necessary transportation in support of GARDEN PLOT movement requirements.

c. Transportation support plans will be prepared and processed for all units assigned to this plan so that specific type forces by geographic area can be identified and air/surface requirements identified. Movement data will be submitted and processed in accordance with the Deployment Reporting System (DEPREP). Movement requirements arising during a civil disturbance or when a unit is alerted, and not processed in accordance with DEPREP will

ANNEX I (PLANNING) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE
PLAN (U)

1. (U) GENERAL

The DA Civil Disturbance Plan provides guidance to all DOD components in all matters pertaining to the planning for and the deployment and employment of military resources in the event of civil disturbances in the 50 states, District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, US possessions and territories.

2. (C) PLANNING REQUIREMENTS

a. Priority Objective Areas:

(1) CONUS. Potential objective areas are grouped within CONUS Army Areas to facilitate planning for the deployment of civil disturbance forces and are listed as High, Intermediate, and Low Priority (appendix 1, this annex). For planning purposes, 25 High Priority objective areas have been identified, and it is assumed that civil disturbances will occur simultaneously in these objective areas. Further, it is anticipated that the total strength of forces involved will reach five brigades, inclusive of all participating Services and Reserve Components plus supporting elements, in each objective area with the exception of the Washington, D.C. area where forces totaling 30,000 troops may be employed.

(2) Areas outside of CONUS. Designation of objective areas and their priorities outside of CONUS are, for both planning and operations, a responsibility of the CINC of the unified command involved. Within resources available, CINCs are charged with planning for and coping with civil disturbances using resources available, and in consonance with guidance set forth by the DOD Executive Agent for this purpose. Commanders of unified commands will insure that information planning packets for all objective areas, operation plans for High Priority objective areas, and concept plans for Intermediate Priority areas are prepared.

Reference: DOD Directive 3025.12.

1. INTRODUCTION

This annex establishes the policy and procedures whereby resources from the Department of Defense are provided to civil authorities for civil disturbance operations.

2. PROVIDING RESOURCES TO CIVIL AUTHORITIES

a. The loan of equipment is intended to meet an urgent need during an actual disorder, and such loans will be considered as a temporary emergency action. Loan agreements will state that loaned equipment may be kept only for the duration of the disorder and in no case more than 15 days. Should the disorder exceed this 15-day period, the receipt for equipment and loan agreement may be renewed for another 15 days. Requests for additional extensions must be approved by the Executive Agent. Requests for DOD facilities, personnel, equipment, or supplies received from officials of the 50 states, District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, US possessions and territories, or any political subdivision thereof, for use in connection with civil disturbances will be handled as follows:

(1) Classification of Resources. Military resources will be classified into three groups, as follows:

- (a) Group One: Military personnel; or arms, ammunition, tank-automotive equipment, and aircraft.
- (b) Group Two: Military equipment of an offensive nature not included in Group One, such as riot control agents and concertina wire.
- (c) Group Three: Fire fighting equipment; equipment of a protective nature (such as masks, helmets, armored vests) and other equipment not included in Group One or Two (such as clothing, communications equipment, search lights); and the use of DOD facilities.

(2) Approval of Requests.

- (a) Requests for Group One resources may be granted only with the personal approval of the DOD Executive Agent or, when designated by him for that purpose, the Under Secretary of the Army.

- (b) Request for Group Two resources may be granted only with the personal approval of the DOD Executive Agent; or, when designated by him for that purpose: (a) the Under Secretary of the Army; (b) a task force commander employed at an objective area during a civil disturbance; or (c) a commander in the event of an actual civil disturbance, specifically designated to implement a contingency plan approved by the DOD Executive Agent.
 - (c) Requests for Group Three resources may be granted by Secretaries of the Military Departments, by CINCs of unified and specified commands for areas outside the CONUS, or by commanders of military service installations or organizations who have been delegated such authority by the appropriate secretary or CINC.
- (3) Denial of Requests.
- (a) Requests for Group One, Two, or Three resources may be denied at any level in the chain of command down to and including commanders delegated Group Three approval authority.
 - (b) To the maximum extent practicable, local military authorities will encourage the use of local or state resources rather than military resources.
- (4) Processing of Requests.
- (a) All requests will be promptly submitted through channels to the appropriate approving authorities using the format shown in appendix 1, this annex.
 - 1. Requests of an urgent nature will be forwarded by the most rapid means of communications available.

235

ANNEX K (PROVIDING RESOURCES TO CIVIL AUTHORITIES) TO DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CIVIL DISTURBANCE PLAN (U)

- (b) Requests received by personnel of the Defense agencies will be referred to local military commanders for processing.
- (5) Loan Agreements.
 - (a) A loan agreement will be executed for all equipment loaned to civil authorities for the control of civil disturbances. The loan agreements will contain provisions for a cash bond, equivalent to the value of the loaned property, as a condition precedent to making the loan. The bond will be forfeited in the event the equipment is not returned at the times specified. Forfeiture of the bond does not constitute a sale of equipment, and the borrower will still be required to return the loaned equipment.
 - (b) Approving commanders may approve a request in anticipation of imminent threat of disorders only when the borrower has initiated procurement action and there is substantial lead time before the equipment will be received. Loan agreements executed for requests of this nature may be executed only for the period of time until the procurement delivery date. Loan agreements will contain provisions for a cash bond equivalent to the value of the equipment loaned, as a condition precedent to making the loan and will contain loan agreements as set forth above. The bond will be forfeited in the event the equipment is not returned at the time specified. Forfeiture of the bond does not constitute sale of the equipment and the borrower will still be required to return the loaned equipment.
- (6) Reporting Requests.
 - (a) Requests for military assistance from civil authorities that require DOD Executive Agent approval will be forwarded to DA/CDCC for relay to the DOD Executive Agent.
 - (b) Reports of all requests (approved, denied, or pending) will be prepared by all approval authorities, using the format shown in Appendix 1, Request and Report Format, this annex, as shown below:

 2. To DA/CDCC with information copies to JCS, in the case of requests received by organizations or installations over which the commanders of the unified and specified commands exercise command authority.
- (c) All reports will be transmitted to DA/CDCC for DOD Executive Agent, who, in turn, will transmit information copies of all approved requests for Groups One and Two resources to the General Counsel of the DOD and the Deputy Attorney General of the United States.
- (d) A weekly summary report of all requests will be compiled by DA/CDCC and submitted through the DOD Executive Agent to the General Counsel of the DOD, the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Installations and Logistics), and the Deputy Attorney General of the United States. This report will be submitted as of 2400Z, Wednesday, due by 2000Z, the following Sunday.

This memorandum establishes policies, procedures, and guidelines relating to employment of elements of the US Coast Guard when Federal forces are committed to civil disturbance operations.

SECTION I

GENERAL

RESOURCES TO BE EMPLOYED

1. The Coast Guard will furnish such waterborne and airborne resources as are reasonably available to assist in civil disturbance operations. The Coast Guard will not be expected to form or maintain ground forces for employment in civil disturbance operations except to protect its own land facilities.
